Project Description

This project aims to establish a continuous communication with the Libyan alumni of the U.S. exchange programs, such as Fulbright. The virtual intern will create and manage a Facebook fan page that serves as an engagement tool with Libyan alumni. He or shee will be asked to develop and engage regularly with the targeted Facebook users in order to develop a sense of community and cohesion among its members. The regular tasks consist of creating the written and visual content of the Facebook page following the content strategy detailed below, moderating the comments and answering the messages sent by the members of the community.

Content strategy:

- Alumni experiences in the U.S. during their participation in the U.S. exchange programs
- Alumni's projects
- Call for participation in a programs/actions launched by the embassy or events, etc.
- Alumni's lives in Libya and the U.S.
- Networking opportunities and sharing resources
